Patchers Ponderings

Oh, to cooler and colorful days of Fall! A huge thank-you to all those that worked and made our Quilt Show a huge success! It was beautiful! I loved seeing our Group Projects displayed! If anyone has any receipts or vouchers that need to be turned in, please, get those to Sue Putt ASAP.

We are so close to ending another year of Pryor Patchers' activities. We are starting to take early Membership Dues, which are due in January. There will be a drawing for those who sign-up early. The winner of the drawing will get their membership dues refunded for Free Membership for next year. Please, read over the Bylaws Updates, which are on our website, for voting this month.

We will present the slate of officers this month and vote on them in November.

Your October 2021 UFO is due to show this month. Make sure you are showing what you wrote down to show so if your name is drawn you can win the prize.

Sign-up for our last Quilt Camp for the year, October 28-30. Our Fat Quarter Game theme colors this time will be Traditional Christmas Red and Green color prints or solid fat quarters.

Looking forward to seeing you at Guild, October 26th!

Pryor Patchers Meeting Minutes

President Ann Underwood called the meeting to order. Vice President Velma Day introduced Pam Goggans from Sager Creek Quilts in Siloam Springs, Arkansas who presented a program about using the Deb Tucker Studio 180 Design rulers. She showed a variety of quilts made by using these rulers. Ann reminded us about the workshop the next day and that participants needed to bring their lunches. Sue Putt reported the Sunshine and Shadows, Velma Day handed out September birthday fat quarters, Shelley Joslin and Lisa Wilhite did the Fat Quarter Exchange. Door prizes were won by Sue Putt, Sharon McFarland, Linda Brandon, and Cathy Casida. The Mystery Word prize was awarded to Linda Kirk.

Angie Cunningham announced the winners of the Block of Valor challenge at the Quilt Show. Pat Morgan took 1st prize, Angie Cunningham, 2nd, and Tes Derringer received 3rd. Ann Underwood won the iron and Pat Morgan and Velma Day won layer cakes.

Linda Kirk reported on the donation quilts. Seventy-six quilts have been donated with several others in progress.

For October's program, members are asked to bring quilts entered in the Quilt Show and their critique sheets and talk about what they learned from the judges'

Coming Soon

November is just around the corner which means our Christmas dinner and gift exchange,

We are catering the dinner (at no cost to you) but we do need to have a head count.

We will have a sign up sheet at the October meeting or you can text me at “velmaday45@gmail.com”.

Hope to see everyone there it's always such a fun time.

comments. There will be a sign-up sheet for Quilt Camp October 28-30 at the meeting. The camp will be held at the First Church of God.

Copies of the proposed by-laws changes were made available to the members. They will be voted on at the October meeting. A nominating committee consisting of Angie Cunningham, Tes Derringer, and Becky Sloan will be asking members to serve as officers in the next year.

The Claremore quilt show is October 15-16 at the Claremore Community Center. The meeting concluded with the Twisted Mystery Reveal and Show and Tell. The UFO for September 2020 (number 5 on your list) is due in October.

Stitch Groups

Pryor Patchers Quilt Guild currently offers a stitch group and a Dear Jane group that meet on a regular basis. You are invited to participate in any or all of the groups. This is a great way to get better acquainted with others who share your quilting interest.

“Sassie Stitchers” Meets every Monday in the Event Center from 10:00 am to 4:00 pm (with a lunch break included). We will work on our own projects most of the time; however, there might be an occasion to do group projects. Everyone is welcome.

“Dear Jane Group” meets at Mid American Grill at 6:00 on the first Tuesday of every month. Everyone buys her own meal. Dear Jane blocks are 4 1/2" blocks that vary from easy to advanced skill levels. You may use your favorite fabrics. There is a Dear Jane quilt book that shows the many types of blocks that can be made using piecing, applique, or a mixture of the techniques. More information about the Dear Jane program is available at www.dearjane.com.

THIS MONTH'S MEETING

Ladies don't forget you are the program for October. Bring one or two quilts that you entered in the quilt show along with the judge's sheet and tell us what you learned from the judge's comments.

We will be voting on the changes to the Bylaws. They can be found on our website www.pryorpatchers.org.

The Nominating Committee will present the slate of officers for next year. They will be voted on at the November meeting.

Fat Quarter Drawing

Members may bring 1 or 2 fat quarters to be placed in a basket. They then write their names on a list along with the number of FQs they brought. Shelley Joslin will draw a number and the person whose name is by that number on the list will choose the FQs she wants, limited to no more than two. Themes for the year are:
October – White or checks
November – Brown or holiday prints

Quilts of Valor

www.qovf.com

The contact person for the Northeast Oklahoma Quilts of Valor chapter is Norlene Grigsby, 918-455-7307, nwgrigsby@yahoo.com.

They hold a work session on the 2nd Saturday of each month at the Broken Arrow Library, 300 West Broadway, from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. with a lunch break around 12:30.

There are many ways to help such as making a quilt top or individual QOV quilt blocks. Attend meetings to iron, cut fabric or help sandwich quilts, volunteer to bind, make labels or presentation bags (pillow cases), or become a longarm quilter.

The QOV organization also needs monetary donations to help with shipping expenses and for the purchase of fabric and batting to complete the projects.
